DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 4/28/05 has been entered.

Information Disclosure Statement

37 CFR 1.98 Content of information disclosure statement:

(b)(5) Each publication listed in an information disclosure statement must be identified by publisher, author (if any), title, relevant pages of the publication, date and place of publication.

The information disclosure statements filed 10/11/01, 5/16/03 and 6/28/04 fail to comply with 37 CFR 1.98(b)(5) in that they include non patent references (i.e. web pages) without a date.

Pursuant to MPEP 609 the date of publication supplied must include at least the month and year of publication, except that the year of publication (without the month) will be accepted if the applicant points out in the information disclosure statement that the year of publication is sufficiently earlier than the effective U.S. filing date and any foreign priority date so that the particular month of publication is not an issue.

Examiner notes that pursuant to this statement, Examiner will only consider the reference if Applicant provides a publication date or includes a statement indicating that the reference is Prior Art and thus the publication date is not an issue.

Art Unit: 3627

Examiner recommends the user of the WayBack machine at www.archive.com for publication dates of web sites.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 11-12 and 16-25 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 12, 22, 25, 27, 28, 31 of U.S. Patent No. 6,871,140 in view of Roderick in further view of Weichert (presented in previous office actions). Per Applicant's admission in the affidavit filed 3/21/05 claim 11 includes all the limitations of claim 22 of the '140 patent and additional features.

Art Unit: 3627

Examiner notes that the additional features represents a web site interface (claim 25 of '140), executing predetermined queries to retrieve property information (claims 28-32 of '140) and displaying property information.

The '140 patent does not teach the web site graphical interface has two portions, a modifiable portion and a linked portion.

Examiner notes that these features have been taught by Roderick in view of Weichert (for example in the office action dated 10/28/04.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention modify the web site display of '140 to include a modified portion and a linked portion as taught by Roderick in view of Weichert in order to provide advertisement for a particular affiliate/real estate agent.
